- Charles W. Grau and Arlene Sheskin 108 Ruling out delay: the impact of Ohio's Rules of Superintendence
Although the Rules successfully reduced delay, they also altered the nature of judging and justice.
- Paul Nejelski 122 Judicial impact statements: ten critical questions we must not overlook
Impact statements are so attractive a goal that we could lose sight of the difficult hurdles that still remain on the way to adopting and implementing them.
- Keith Boyum and Samuel Krislov 136 Judicial impact statements: what's needed, what's possible?
Reliably predicting the impact of new legislation on the courts is an important goal, but we must also consider the legislation's potential costs and benefits to society.
- Susan M. Olson 147 Judicial impact statements for state legislation: why so little interest?
Simple statistical methods and good working relationships with legislators usually provide an effective alternative.
- John H. Culver 151 Politics and the California Plan for choosing appellate judges: a lesson at large on judicial selection
California needs an alternative that minimizes politics and ensures truly qualified judges.
- 163 Books
The Brandeis/Frankfurter Connection: The Secret Political Activities of Two Supreme Court Justices, by Bruce Allen Murphy
The Passive Judiciary, by Abraham Goldstein
- 167 Focus
