

The Yale Law Journal

Volume 94, Number 7, June 1985

Contents

Articles

Alexander Bickel's Philosophy of Prudence
Anthony T. Kronman 1567

Public Administration and Public Deliberation:
An Interpretive Essay
Robert B. Reich 1617

Comments

Rethinking Fairness: Perspectives on the Litigation Process
Jon O. Newman 1643

For Reconciliation
Andrew W. McThenia and Thomas L. Shaffer 1660

Out of Eden
Owen M. Fiss 1669

Notes

Justice Without Favor: Due Process and Separation of
Executive and Judicial Powers in State Government 1675

Forum Non Conveniens and the Extraterritorial
Application of United States Antitrust Law 1693

Parental Rights and the Habilitation Decision for
Mentally Retarded Children 1715

Judicial Right Declaration and Entrenched Discrimination 1741

Incorporation of Independent Agencies into the Executive Branch 1766

Forcing the Bystander to Get Involved:
A Case for a Statute Requiring Witnesses to Report Crime 1787

The Yale Law Journal

Alexander Bickel's Philosophy of Prudence
Anthony T. Kronman

Public Administration and Public Deliberation:
An Interpretive Essay
Robert B. Reich

Rethinking Fairness: Perspectives on the Litigation Process
Jon O. Newman

For Reconciliation
Andrew W. McThenia and Thomas L. Shaffer

Out of Eden
Owen M. Fiss

Justice Without Favor: Due Process and Separation of
Executive and Judicial Powers in State Government

Forum Non Conveniens and the Extraterritorial Application of United States Antitrust Law

Parental Rights and the Habilitation Decision for
Mentally Retarded Children

Judicial Right Declaration and Entrenched Discrimination

Incorporation of Independent Agencies into the Executive Branch

Forcing the Bystander to Get Involved:
A Case for a Statute Requiring Witnesses to Report Crime

Reviews:

How Did It All Begin?
Mirjan Damaška

Enduring Passion
Ernest J. Weinrib

Volume 94

June 1985

Issue 7