

Legal Studies

The Journal of the Society of Public Teachers of Law

Editor: Professor John Bell,
Faculty of Law, University of Leeds

CONTENTS

Articles

Appreciating Olugboja by Simon Gardner 275

Conciliation and the New Zealand Family Court: lessons for English law reformers
by Caroline Bridge 298

The myth of common intention by Nicola Glover and Paul Todd 325

Privileging the medical norm: liberalism, self-determination and refusal of treatment by John Harrington 348

Protecting women who provide security for a husband's, partner's or child's debts.
The value and limits of an economic perspective by Megan Richardson 368

Dangerous liaisons: new developments in the law of defective premises by Carl F Stychin 387

Book reviews 417

Books received 433

Butterworths