

The Yale Law Journal

Volume 107, Number 3, December 1997

Contents

| | |
|----------------|---|
| GARDEX | ✓ |
| VOCES | |
| B. DATOS | |
| CK | |
| PUBL. J (1998) | |
| | |
| | |

George Fisher 575

Articles

The Jury's Rise as Lie Detector

The Unjustified Absence of Federal Fraud
Protection in the Labor Market

Kent Greenfield 715

Note

The Concept of Religion

Eduardo Peñalver 791

Book Review

Private Rights and Public Power:
American Law, Capitalism, and the Republican
Polity in Nineteenth-Century America

Harry N. Scheiber 823

Case Notes

Construction Work: The Canons of Indian Law

Max Minzner 863

The Costs of Confusion in Cyberspace

Jon H. Oram 869

The Yale Law Journal

Articles

The Jury's Rise as Lie Detector
George Fisher

The Unjustified Absence of Federal Fraud
Protection in the Labor Market
Kent Greenfield

Note

The Concept of Religion

Book Review

Private Rights and Public Power:
American Law, Capitalism, and the Republican
Polity in Nineteenth-Century America
Harry N. Scheiber

Case Notes

Volume 107

December 1997

Number 3