

JOURNAL

Cognitive Analytic Therapy

Radical Feminist Analysis and Domestic Violence Work

Working with Denial in Chronic Alcohol Users

Probation Beyond the Reviews

Art Practice in the Probation Service

Working with Racially Motivated Offenders

Criminal Injuries Compensation

PROBATION Journal

VOLUME 46 No 1 MARCH 1999

Editorial	2	Racist Offending
Cognitive Analytic Therapy And The 'Hard To Help' Client	3	Rachel Pollard and Steve Potts outline how CAT can be used to work with some of the most intractable clients on probation caseloads
Work With Men Who Are Violent To Their Partners: Time To Re-assert A Radical Pro-feminist Analysis	11	Paul Teft argues that a strongly pro-radical feminist approach to work with perpetrators of domestic violence is essential to effective intervention
The Elephant In The Interview Room: Working With The Process Of Denial In Chronic Drinkers	19	Andy Taylor examines the function of denial as a block to effective work with chronic drinkers and suggests ways of tackling this response
Probation – A Life Beyond The Reviews	26	Roger Statham gives a senior manager's perspective on the implications of recent changes for the Probation Service
Art Practice Within The Probation Service	31	Kate Broom contends that art practice has an important part to play in work with offenders
Reflections: Working With Racially Motivated Offenders	37	Richard Edwards argues that working positively with offenders who have links to racist organisations is essential in both professional and ethical terms
Practice Note: Criminal Injuries Compensation For Victims Of Sexual Abuse	40	Marie Valente outlines some of the main issues facing sexually abused clients who want to claim criminal injuries compensation
Research	43	Fear of Crime, Prevalence of Domestic Violence, Cost of Juvenile Offending, Domestic Violence and Child Abuse, Outcome of Police Arrests
Reviews	47	Enforcement, Introduction to the Probation Service, Crime and the Media, Social Work and Law in Scotland, Counselling Abused People, Quality Social Work
Reports Briefing	56	Youth Strategy, Sex Offending Against Children, Mediation, Prisoners and the Democratic Process
In Court	59	Section 53 Detention, Deportation, Same Sex Co-parents, Racially Motivated Attack, Family Assistance Order
Resources	62	Women's Aid, Mediation Conference, Home Secretary's Speech, Divorce and Children Leaflets, Women Offenders Study, Asian Sex Offenders
Letters	63	Responses to 'Grave Young Offenders', Violence Survey

---