

JOURNAL

Special Issue

Working with Mentally
Disordered
Offenders

PROBATION Journal

VOLUME 46 No 2 JUNE 1999

- Editorial 65 Complexity of Working with Mentally Disordered Offenders
- Understanding And Managing Psychopathic Disorder 66 Herschel Prins outlines the history and aetiology of psychopathic disorder, and explores implications for practice
- Victims Of Mentally Disordered Offenders: Redressing The Balance Of Rights 77 Margaret Reith argues that victims of offenders dealt with under mental health legislation are in need of rights similar to those provided under the 'Victim's Charter'
- Providing Better Services For Mentally Disordered Young Offenders: Pitfalls and Prospects 83 John Harding explores the difficulties facing young people involved in the Mental Health and Criminal Justice Systems and outlines an agenda for positive change
- Cross Cultural Psychiatry And Probation Practice: A Discourse On Issues, Context And Practice 89 Kamaldeep Bhui describes the principles of cross-cultural psychiatry, reviews research evidence and identifies relevant lessons for probation and other mental health services
- Community Care: Failures And Future Directions 101 Jayne Zito argues that community care is a failed experiment, and assesses how far mental health policy has come in providing better protection for the public
- Psychiatric Support To Mentally Disordered Prisoners Within The Prison System 106 Phillip Vaughan, Maria Kelly and Nick Pullen report on a study of prisoners with mental health problems held in establishments covered by the Wessex Consortium
- Reflections: Learning From Mental Health Service-Users 113 Sue Baumbach combines professional and personal insight to reflect on the importance of providers of services listening to service-users and their carers
- Practice Note: A Role For Forensic Psychology In The Probation Service? 116 Members of the Forensic Psychology Practice describe the principles of a service provided to local probation services
- Practice Note: Probation-Led Multi-Agency Working: A Practice Model 119 Hindpal Singh Bhui briefly describes the workings of a multi-agency forum set up as part of a wider initiative to improve probation practice with mentally disordered offenders
-

PROBATION Journal

VOLUME 46 No 2 JUNE 1999

Research & Reports 122 Suicide in Prisons, Dual Diagnosis, Transfers from Prison to Hospital, Life Sentence Prisoners, Confidence in Community Sentences, Homicides by Mentally Ill People, Heroin Outbreaks, Practitioners' Views of a Unified Court Welfare Service, Prison Incentive Schemes, Stephen Lawrence Report

Reviews 131 Working With Racially Motivated Offenders, Substance Use and Misuse, Community Care Tragedies, Mental Health in a Multi-cultural Society, New European Criminology, Prisons and Imprisonment, Effective Training, Responding to Trauma, Practice Teaching, Politics of Criminal Justice, Social Exclusion

In Court 144 Fairness for Restricted Patients, Appropriate Adults, Close Supervision, Automatic Life, Juveniles and Reporting Restrictions, Travel Abroad, Recall Under Section 40, Nudity Risk, Committal of Hostile Parent, Revocation and Re-sentence

Resources 149 Survivors' Directory, Youth Justice Conference, Sex Offender Guidance, British Criminology Conference, Young Person's Guide to Criminal Justice, Challenging Offending Report, Criminal Justice Mailbase, Ex-Offenders Conference, Poverty Report, Race and Forensic Psychiatry

Letters 151 Radical Feminism and Domestic Violence, Research on Welfare Reports, Working with Mental Disorder

Editor's Note

Please note that the Editor's address has now changed to:

*C/o 217a Balham High Road
Balham
London
SW17 7BP*