

JOURNAL

DECEMBER 1999 VOL 46 NO 4

Working with Sex Offenders in Denial

Using the Polygraph in the Community Supervision of Sex Offenders

A Psychodynamic Critique of Lie Detector Examinations

The Probation Service and the National Drug Strategy

Reflections on The Children and Family Court Advisory Service

Modernism and Post
Modernism in Probation
Training Structures

IQ and Comprehension of the Probation Contract

PROBATION Journal

VOLUME 46 No 4 DECEMBER 1999

GARDEX	✓
VOCES
B. DATES

- | | | |
|---|-----|---|
| Editorial | 224 | Working With Sex Offenders |
| A Community-Based Programme For Sex Offenders Who Deny Their Offending Behaviour | 225 | Bron Roberts and Clark Balm explain the theoretical basis and evolution of the Middlesex Deniers' Programme |
| The Use Of The Polygraph In The Community Supervision Of Sex Offenders | 234 | Daniel Wilcox, Dan Sosnowski and David Middleton argue that the polygraph can play an important role in protecting the public from sex offenders |
| Some Psychodynamic Reflections On Polygraph Examinations With Sex Offenders | 241 | Jude Deacon assesses the merits of lie detector examinations and considers their role in protecting the worker from anxiety |
| The Changing Shape of Drug Treatment Services: The Probation Contribution | 246 | Deborah Mitchell discusses the Prison Service approach to implementation of the National Drug Strategy, drawing relevant lessons for the Probation Service |
| Reflections: The Family Courts: Does The Future Work? | 253 | Alison Jones examines different perspectives on the new Children and Family Court Advisory Service |
| Reflections: Probation Training: Late Modernism or Post Modernism? | 256 | Helen Schofield uses these concepts to argue that probation training is flexible, sustainable and robust |
| Practice Note: Improving Understanding And Recall Of The Probation Service Contract | 259 | Leigh Morris and Jonathan Mason describe work aimed at ensuring that supervision contracts are comprehensible to most offenders |
| Research & Reports | 263 | Mothers and Babies in Prison, Drug Misuse Survey, Drug Use Across Adolescence, Drug Smuggling, Motivational Interviewing, Dual Diagnosis Conference, Custodial Remands, Young People's Mental Health |
| Reviews | 272 | Domestic Violence, Working with Black Offenders, Brown Bread in Wengen, Child Offenders, Adventures in Criminology, Group Exercises, Rural Crime, Prison Theatre, Drug Trafficking, Victims |
| In Court | 282 | Sex Offender Registration, Parole and Denial, Seriousness Thresholds, Contact Orders, Disparaged Court Welfare Officer, Unusual Use of Family Assistance Order, Uses of PSR, Home Detention Curfew and Appeal, Supplying Drugs and Exceptional Circumstances, Truth of Paternity, Breach of Supervision Order |
| Resources | 287 | Family Violence, Race and Justice 2000, Breach Survey, Prison Suicides, Drug Policy Speech, Working With Psychiatrists |
| Letters | 288 | Racially Motivated Offenders Policy |