

EUROPEAN LAW REVIEW

Volume 25 No. 1 February 2000

*Editors: Anthony Arnall
Robin C. A. White*

Editorial—Beefing up the rule of law

*Primus inter pares. Who is the ultimate guardian of fundamental rights in Europe?
Iris Canor*

Article 16 E.C. and services of general interest: from derogation to obligation?
Malcolm Ross

The European Ombudsman: a novel source of soft law in the European Union
Peter Gjerloeff Bonnor

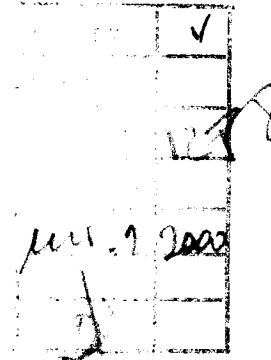

Social dumping and the race to the bottom: some lessons for the European Union from Delaware?
Catherine Barnard

Notes and Shorter Articles

European Law Review

February 2000

Editorial —Beefing up the rule of law	1
Articles
Primus inter pares . Who is the ultimate guardian of fundamental rights in Europe? Iris Canor	3
Article 16 E.C. and services of general interest: from derogation to obligation? Malcolm Ross	22
The European Ombudsman: a novel source of soft law in the European Union Peter Gjerloff Bonnor	39
Social dumping and the race to the bottom: some lessons for the European Union from Delaware? Catherine Barnard	57
Notes and Shorter Articles
Ensuring human rights review of inter-governmental acts in Europe Toby King	79
Carriage of goods and the Brussels Jurisdiction and Judgments Convention Trevor C. Hartley	89
Book Reviews	94
Cumulative Table of Cases	i
Cumulative Table of Legislation	v
Cumulative Index	ix