

JOURNAL

JUNE 2000 VOL 47 NO 2

Parental Substance Abuse and Child Protection

Working With Victims

'Localising' Criminology

Scottish Youth Justice

Enforcement and Effectiveness

National Standards

Restorative Justice and YOTs

PROBATION Journal

VOLUME 47 No 2 JUNE 2006

Editorial	90	Populism and Effectiveness
Invisible Children? Parental Substance Abuse And Child Protection: Dilemmas For Practice	91	Brynna Kroll and Andy Taylor consider important research lessons and dilemmas for professionals working with parents who abuse drugs or alcohol
The Probation Service's Work With Victims Of Crime	101	Jill Enterkin and Adam Crawford examine the issues thrown up by the differing approaches to victim work undertaken by two probation services
Making Criminology Work: Theory And Practice In Local Context	108	Fergus McNeill argues that effective practice demands the 'localised' application of criminological understandings
Between Two Stools: Youth Justice In Scotland	119	Bill Whyte uses recent research to examine a range of important issues for the Scottish Youth Justice system
Reflections: The Missing Link: Effective Enforcement And Effective Supervision	126	Carol Hedderman and Ian Hearnden explore the development and consequences of increasingly rigid enforcement policies.
Reflections: Pure Fiction: An Infallible Guide To National Standards	129	David Bale takes a satirical look at the work of a crack probation team
Practice Note: Victim Consultation And Reparation: Preliminary Lessons From The Pilot Youth Offending Teams	132	Jim Dignan examines some emerging concerns about the delivery of reparative measures
Research & Reports	136	Women's Imprisonment, Attitudes to Crime, Race and Prisons, Women and DTTOs, Drug Use and Child Protection, Listening to Children's Views, Working With Denial, Training For Work with Mentally Disordered Offenders, Victim Services
Reviews	145	Child Abuse, Criminal Justice 2000, ADP in Family Courts, Respecting Justice, Averting Aggression, Groupwork, Children and Domestic Violence, Sentencing, Mental Disorder
In Court	155	Naming and Shaming, Denial and Parole, Recall and Section 40, Home Detention Curfew, Committal, Early Release, Parental Conflict over Circumcision
Resources	159	Website Guide, Community and Restorative Justice Reports, European Conference, Children's Rights
Letters	160	Women's Counselling Service