

JOURNAL

SEPTEMBER 2000 VOL 47 NO 3

Gender, Diversity and Risk

Reflexive Risk Assessment

Family Courts and Domestic Violence

Scottish Criminal Justice

National Standards

Alternative Approaches to Contact Disputes

Racially Motivated Offenders

PROBATION Journal

VOLUME 47 No 3 SEPTEMBER 2000

- Editorial 162 Beyond Risk Assessment
- Gender, Diversity And Risk Assessment In Canadian Corrections 163 Margaret Shaw and Kelly Hannah-Moffatt critique the use of risk instruments based on data obtained from white male populations
- Beyond Defensible Decision-Making: Towards Reflexive Assessment Of Risk And Dangerousness 173 Robin Tuddenham argues that probation practice must embrace a more dynamic notion of risk assessment
- 'Risk Of Harm' And Domestic Violence: An Issue For The Family Court? 184 Sheila Mosley argues that the effects of the domestic violence should be more central to risk assessments in court welfare reports
- The Challenge Ahead For Criminal Justice Social Work In Scotland 193 James Maybee warns that Scotland's Criminal Justice Social Work Services are at critical crossroads
- Reflections: Pure Fiction: An Infallible Guide To National Standards 200 David Bale continues his satire on Spoons's crack probation team
- Reflections: W(h)ither Contact? An Alternative To Current Practices 203 Ian Waite argues for a more therapeutic approach to contact disputes
- Practice Note: Some Relevant Questions For Work With Racist And Racially Motivated Offenders 206 Charles McDonald shares his experiences of work with a racially motivated murderer
- Research & Reports 210 Young People in Custody, Community Safety, Contact and Domestic Violence, Women in NAPO, Bullying in Prisons, Parole Decisions, Prison Workshops, Prison Performance, Harassment Act, Human Rights and Prisons, Human Rights and Public Safety
- Reviews 219 Victims of Violence, Risk Assessment, Sexuality, Sex Offender Treatment, Prison Handbook, Violence and MDOs, Youth Project
- In Court 227 Lessons for Social Services, Rehabilitative Effort, Automatic Life, Probation and Custody, Robbery on Public Transport, Sexual Abuse and Gender, Racial Aggravation and Assault, Extended Sentences
- Resources 232 Victims, Mental Health, Samaritans, Prison Rules, Human Rights, Asian Mental Health