

JOURNAL

DECEMBER 2000 VOL 47 NO 4

Housing for Offenders

Exporting What Works

'Straight Thinking' in New Zealand

Social Work and Effective Practice

Probation in Ireland

Prison/Probation Accreditation Panel

Doubts About What Works

National Standards

PROBATION Journal

VOLUME 47 No 4 DECEMBER 2000

| | |
|----------|---------|
| CARDEX | ✓ |
| VOCES | |
| B. DATES | |
| | OK |
| | 11/3/00 |
| | |
| | |

- Editorial 234 Questioning 'Effective Practice'
- Back To The Future: Housing And Support For Offenders 235 Diane Barkley and Steve Collett explore the opportunities presented by new arrangements for housing provision
- What Works At One Arm Point? A Study In The Transportation Of A Penal Concept 243 Anne Worrall critically examines attempts to export 'effective practice' orthodoxy to parts of Western Australia
- Straight Thinking* In New Zealand/Aotearoa 250 Anita Gibbs and Russell Beal assess the design and impact of an offending behaviour programme
- Social Work Education, Pro-Social Orientation And Effective Probation Practice 256 Chris Trotter discusses the implications of Australian research showing that social workers are more effective in tackling offending behaviour
- The Irish Probation And Welfare Service: Some Observations On Recent Developments 262 Terry Thomas considers the relatively slow development of probation in the Republic of Ireland
- Reflections: Credible Accreditation? 268 George Mair delivers a withering critique of the Prison Probation Accreditation Panel
- Reflections: Doubts About The What Works Initiative 272 Simon Merrington and Steve Stanley discuss a number of concerns about current approaches to effective practice
- Reflections: Pure Fiction: An Infallible Guide To National Standards 3 276 David Bale concludes his satire on Spoton's outstanding probation team
- Research & Reports 279 What Works Conference, Race Equality, Short Term Prisoners, Travelling to Offend, Asylum Seekers, Stalking, Responding to Youth Crime, DTTOs Evaluation
- Reviews 287 Detecting Lies, Millennium People, Commercial Robbery, Criminal Behaviour and Legal Processes, Youth Justice, Learning at Work, Social Policy, Interviewing and Deception, Race and Secure Psychiatric Practice, Victim Perspectives
- In Court 298 Extortion Bid, Racially Motivated Crime, Extended Sentences, Probation for Rape, Hostels and Remand Time, Old Age and Sentencing, Custody Without PSR, Discretionary Lifer Panels, Persistent Young Offenders, Plea Bargaining, Rave Supply, Life Tariffs, Intentional Homelessness
- Resources 303 CJS Guide, PSR Guide, Mental Health and Spirituality, Suicide and Self Harm, Young Carers
- Letters 304 Erroneous Perception of Scottish Training, Author's Reply