

JOURNAL

MARCH 2001 VOL 48 NO 1

Cognitive Behaviourism and the Holy Grail

Men, Masculinity and Offending

Extending What Works

Perceptions of Travelling People

Community Values

Video Interviews and PSRs

Victim Awareness Programme

PROBATION Journal

VOLUME 48 No 1 MARCH 2001

Editorial	2	Debating What Works
Cognitive Behaviourism And The Holy Grail: The Quest For A Universal Means Of Managing Offender Risk	3	Kevin Gorman argues that the claims of 'effective practice' are simplistic and over-optimistic
Men, Masculinity And Offending: Developing Gendered Practice In The Probation Service	10	Mark Johnstone discusses the implementation of gender specific work in work with men
Extending What Works Principles To Standard Orders: Findings From A Local Evaluation	17	John Deering, Sharon Pike and Richard Thurston discuss the unexpected and salutary lessons of a local project
A Forgotten Minority: Workers' Perceptions of Scottish Travelling People	26	David Morran highlights areas of potential discrimination in criminal justice social work practice with Travelling People
Reflections: Community Values and Community Justice	34	Mike Nellis considers the ethical future of the Probation Service
Practice Note: Using Video Recorded Interviews With Child Witnesses In Pre-Sentence Reports	39	Terry Thomas, Alison Bennett, Cerydwen Edwards and Makhlan Shergill argue that incorporating video interviews would improve the quality of reports
Practice Note: Sheffield Victim Offender Mediation Service's Two Hour Victim Awareness Programme	43	Carol Fordham describes the fundamentals of an innovative approach towards helping young offenders develop victim empathy
Research & Reports	47	Police Enforcement and Drugs, Drugs and Crime, Youth Offenders' Lifestyles, Stop and Search, Costs of Crime, Probation Employment Schemes, Criminality of Serious Traffic Offenders
Reviews	55	Preventing Violence, Community Safety, Ethical Practice, Drama Workshops, Introducing Criminology, Groupwork Approaches, Magistrates Guide, Sex Offenders, Forgiving Justice
In Court	64	Automatic Life Sentences, Racial Aggravation, Offender's Children, Parole Board, 'All Options', Contempt of Court, Drug Trafficking, Internet Pornography, JSA, Shared Residence, Domestic Violence, DTOs
Resources	70	Mental Health Qualification, European Perspectives, Restorative Justice, Lakes Conference, Revisiting Woolf
Letters	71	Re-naming Probation, Rainer Archive