

The International Journal of

Human Rights

Volume 6 Number 1 Spring 2002

Laurie Calhoun

The Phenomenology of Paid Killing

Kumar Amarasekara and Mirko Bagaric

The Vacuousness of Rights in the Euthanasia Debate

Francesco Bruscoli

The Rights of the Individual in Times of Armed Conflict

Mohamed Berween

The Fundamental Human Rights:
An Islamic Perspective

Forum on Humanitarian Intervention

Mohammed Ayoob

Humanitarian Intervention and State Sovereignty

with replies by

B.S. Chimni, Samuel M. Makinda
and Nicholas J. Wheeler

Contents

The Phenomenology of Paid Killing	Laurie Calhoun	1
The Vacuousness of Rights in the Euthanasia Debate	Kumar Amarasekara and Mirko Bagaric	19
The Rights of the Individual in Times of Armed Conflict	Francesco Bruscoli	45
The Fundamental Human Rights: An Islamic Perspective	Mohamed Berween	61
Forum on Humanitarian Intervention
Introduction		79
Humanitarian Intervention and State Sovereignty	Mohammed Ayoob	81
Replies:
A New Humanitarian Council for Humanitarian Interventions?	B.S. Chimni	103
The Global Covenant as an Evolving Institution	Samuel M. Makinda	113
Decision-making Rules and Procedures for Humanitarian Intervention	Nicholas J. Wheeler	127

For details of past and future contents of this and our other journals please visit our website at www.frankcass.com/jnls