

JOURNAL

SEPTEMBER 2002 VOL 49 NO 3

Prisoners, Volunteering and Citizenship

Racially Motivated Offenders

Transtheoretical Model

Transgendered and Transsexual Offenders

Enforcing Prisoners' Rights

PROBATION Journal

VOLUME 49 No 3 SEPTEMBER 2002

Editorial 194 Effective Practice and Difference

Unlocking Potential: Active Citizenship And Volunteering By Prisoners 195 Joe Levenson and Finola Farrant present the findings of the first national study of volunteering by prisoners

Tackling Racist Offending: A Generalised Or Targeted Approach? 205 Liz Dixon examines the development of programmes for racially motivated offenders

The Transtheoretical Model And Quality Of Life Promotion: Towards Successful Offender Rehabilitation 217 D.J. Williams and William B. Strean argue that a rehabilitative approach which stresses the importance of change to an offender's quality of life will have the best chance of achieving success

Working With Transgendered And Transsexual People As Offenders In The Probation Service 227 Lindsey Poole, Stephen Whittle and Paula Stephens discuss their survey of probation practitioners in contact with transgendered offenders

Reflections: Enforcing Prisoners' Rights 233 Daniel Machover considers the degree to which prisoners can be said to have access to justice

Research & Reports 237 Instant Drug Testing, Restorative Cautioning, Employing Drug Users, Pathfinder Programmes, Rape and Sexual Assault, Re-offending by Ex-Prisoners

CARDEX	✓
VOCES
B. DATOS
OK
Sept 23 - 2002

Reviews 245 Women and Punishment, Probation Working for Justice, Pre-trial Services, Sexual Abuse, Reparation and Victim-focused Work, Child Prostitution and Abuse, Technology and Offender Supervision

In Court 254 Road Rage, Reasons for Recall, At Risk on the Run, Early Release, Challenging Recall, Tariff Expiry and Oral Hearing for Lifers, Mandatory Lifers, Category A Impasse, Schedule One Disclosure, Intentional Homelessness, Adjourning for DTTO Assessment, Violent Offenders

Resources 262 Drug Information Booklets, Stonham Housing Website, Geese Theatre Handbook, MIND Publications, Probation Websites

Letters 263 Imprisoned Fathers Review, Accredited Programmes