

A Bold Stroke page 30

1 The Good Advocate
LINCOLN CAPLAN

6 LETTERS

SCENES

8 An Illegal Arrangement
CYNTHIA JOYCE

The test Louisiana florists can't afford to fail.

10 ...Join 'Em

GEOFFREY GAGNON

Currying favor with Barry Currier.

12 Double Blind

CLIVE THOMPSON

Who needs a lawyer when there's the Internet?

13 The Snap-on Wives

BRIAN MONTOPOLI

When the family franchise fails, who can sue?

THE PRUDENT JURIST

17 STEPHEN GILLERS

A juvenile judge tattles on the kids in his court.

APPRAISAL

18 Breaking Up Isn't Hard to Do

JOHN SWANSBURG

Hollywood has decided divorce isn't a big deal.

TERMS OF ART

20 Charles Was First

JAMES PFANDER

The etymology of terror.

ARGUMENT

23 Sucker Punch

CHRIS MOONEY

How conservatives are trying to gut the science behind the Endangered Species Act.

27 Locked Out

KATE ANDRIAS

What do Circuit City, Waffle House, and Labor Ready have in common?

30 A Bold Stroke

By Emily Bazelon

In her opinion ordering Massachusetts to allow gay marriages, the chief justice of the state's supreme court has shunned politics and stood on principle. But will she be remembered as the judge who jeopardized her court for a cause?

42 Medea's Shadow

By Charlotte Faltermayer

Marybeth Davis is serving a life sentence for killing her 3-year-old daughter and severely injuring her infant son. New evidence suggests that Davis might be innocent—and that the medical diagnosis used to convict her might be a medical fiction.

50 The Sword of Spitzer

By Nicholas Thompson

A little-known law called the Martin Act gives New York's attorney general extraordinary power, yet for 75 years this Excalibur has been left to rust in its scabbard. Now, Eliot Spitzer is wielding it against the biggest players on Wall Street.

cover art by DEMETRIOS PSILLOS

THE DOCUMENT

L.A. Lawlessness

CHARLOTTE CALDERMAYR

The Munchausen Mystery

THE MARCH

A New Etymology of Terror

legal

#BXNPDZG ALL FOR ADC 090
 #00184083/9# LEAF SEP/OCT 04 523 P2 #R#

USIS BUENOS AIRES
 LIBRARY/IRC
 UNIT 4330
 APO AA 34034

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

By ordering Massachusetts to allow gay marriage, state Chief Justice Margaret Marshall shunned politics and stood on principle. But will her shot heard 'round the world harm both the cause and her court?

US $8.95 | CAN $9.95
www.legalaffairs.org

legalaffairs

REVIEWS

CULTURE

56 L.A. Lawlessness

The lying, cheating, murdering elite of the new LAPD cop shows and movies.

BY JEFF TURRENTINE

ACADEMY

60 Piety and the Preamble

Joseph Weiler's A Christian Europe claims a place for Christianity in Europe's proposed new constitution.

BY ROBERT HOWSE

ACADEMY

63 Elsewhere

Ducking the death penalty, making a federal case out of local corruption, and other ideas from the nation's law reviews.

L.A. Lawlessness page 56

STORIES

65 Exodus. Numbers. Judges.

As conservative parishes leave the liberal Episcopal Church, who shall inherit the real estate?

BY ELIZABETH AUSTIN

69 Just Say Nothing

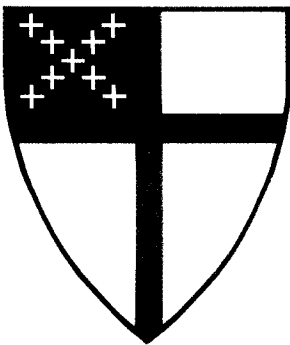

Joe White's battle to legalize the discussion of drug legalization.

BY GARY GREENBERG

EXHIBIT

72 Portrait of a Lady

Exodus. Numbers. Judges. page 65