

VOLUME 2    NUMBER 2    APRIL 2004

International Journal of Constitutional Law

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

International Journal of Constitutional Law

Contents

Symposium: Emergency Powers and Constitutionalism

- 207 Introduction
- 210 The law of the exception: A typology of emergency powers
John Ferejohn and Pasquale Pasquino
- 240 Comments on the paper by Ferejohn and Pasquino
Jon Elster
- 244 Intimations of legality amid the clash of arms
David Dyzenhaus
- 272 Rule by emergency: Sri Lanka's postcolonial constitutional experience
Radhika Coomaraswamy and Charmaine de los Reyes
- 296 Emergency contexts without emergency powers: The United States' constitutional approach to rights during wartime
Samuel Issacharoff and Richard H. Pildes
- 334 Free speech in World War II: "When are you going to indict the seditionists?"
Geoffrey R. Stone
- 368 Proconstitutional behavior, political actors, and independent courts:
A comment on Geoffrey Stone's paper
Vicki C. Jackson
- 380 The interface between public emergency powers and international law
Dominic McGoldrick