

Behind the Hedge

28 BEHIND THE HEDGE

In the untamed world of hedge funds, rigged deals and manipulated markets help the wealthy thrive while ordinary investors wither.

BY DAVID SKEEL

32 THE ENEMY AMONG US

They have grown smaller and quieter over the past decade, but citizen militias are still locked and loaded in rural America. Is the FBI paying attention?

BY GEOFFREY GAGNON

40 A BLUEPRINT FOR THE FUTURE

The federal government has embarked on the biggest courthouse building spree in history, hired the nation's finest architects to do the designing, and touched off a rancorous debate over what the courthouses of tomorrow should look like.

BY DANIEL BROOK

48 VIAGRA NATURAL

Maca, a plant grown in the Andean highlands, is believed to boost male potency. The Quechua Indians cultivate it; a New Jersey company owns the patent on it. The Americans call the work that led to the patent bioprospecting. Others say it's stealing.

BY BRENDAN I. KOERNER

54 ARTFULLY MADE-UP

Americans bought $6.4 billion worth of cosmeceutical skin care products last year. But customers who read between the fine lines discover that the most potent active ingredient is their own gullibility.

BY ERIKA KAWALEK

REVIEWS

ACADEMY

58 Fundamental Imports The European origins of American civil liberties (and the American Civil Liberties Union).

BY MARK TUSHNET

PRACTICE

61 Second Look at the Second City Chicago lawyers changed a lot in 20 years.

BY WILLIAM HENDERSON

ELSEWHERE

64 The taxonomy of lawyer jokes and other ideas from the nation's law reviews.

ACADEMY

66 Born on the Fourth of July America's Constitution was redeemed by the Declaration of Independence that came before it, not 75 years later by the Civil War.

BY MURRAY DRY

EXHIBIT

72 Kurdish Masks

cover art by YAN NASCIMBENE

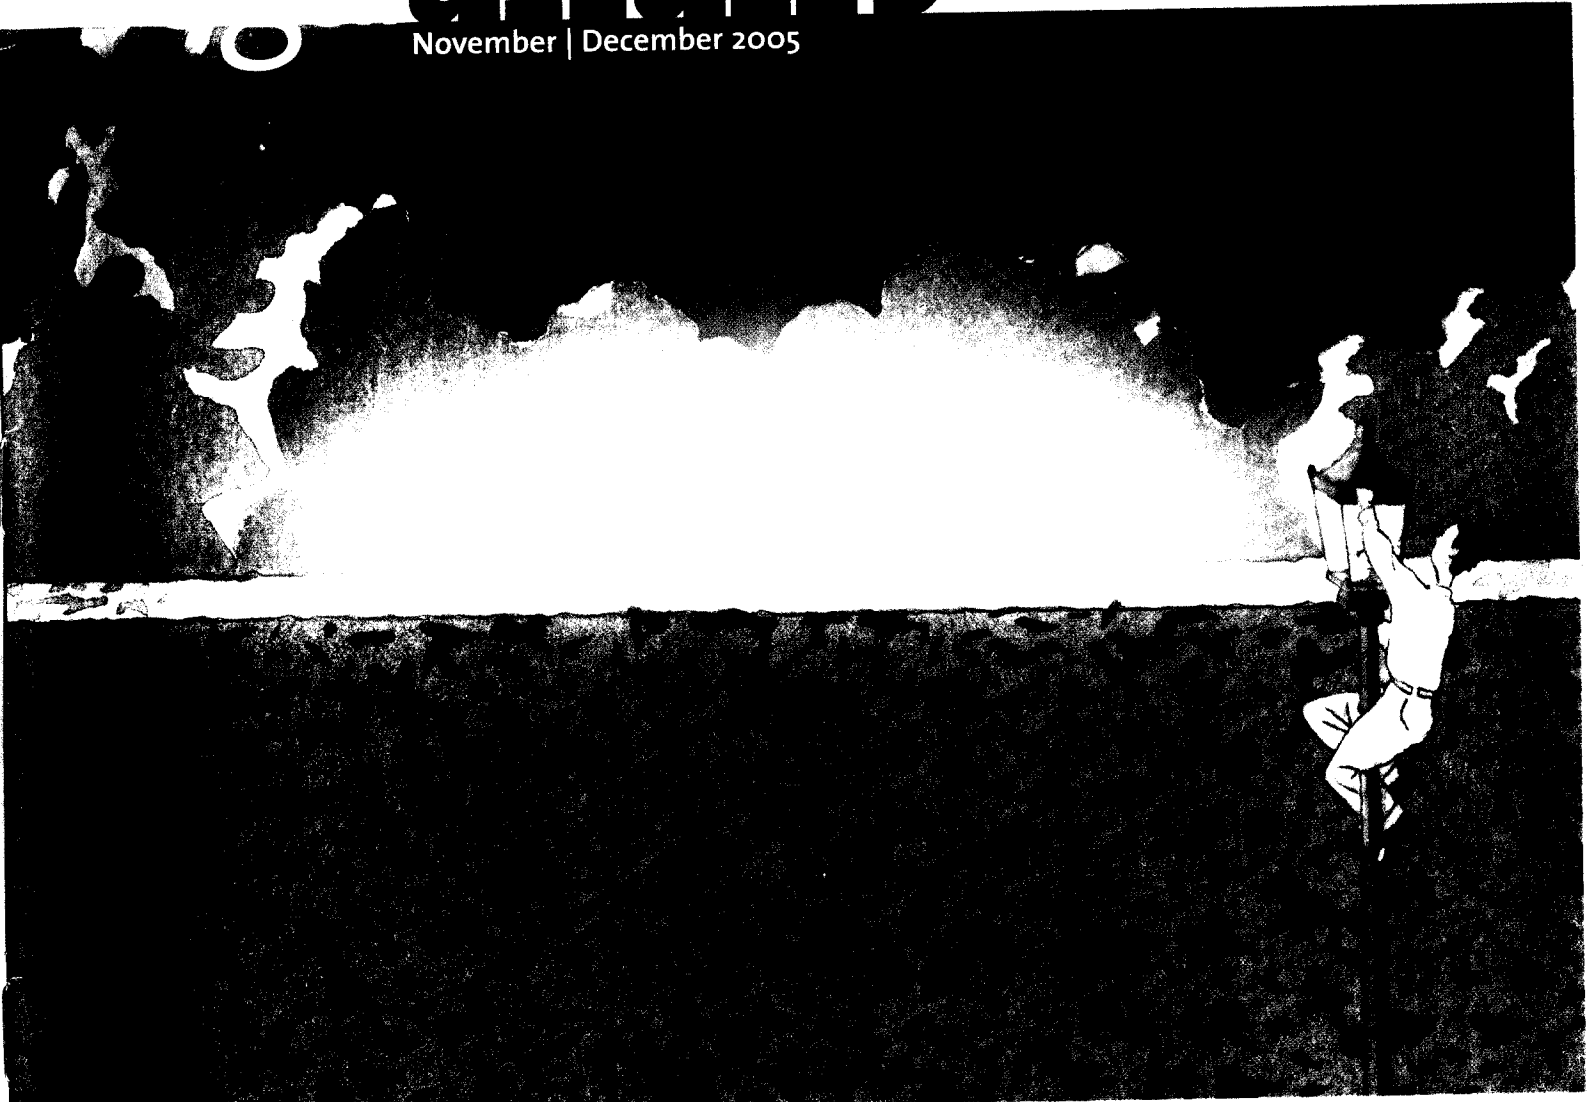

NORMAN BRADBURN

MURRAY DRY

LAURA LONGHINE

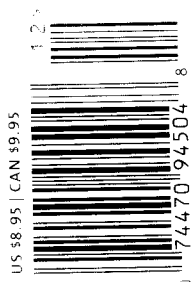

affairs

November | December 2005

Behind the Hedge

By David Skeel

affairs

November | December 2005

Leaving One-Child Behind page 8

A Blueprint for the Future page 40

1 Litmus Tests BY LINCOLN CAPLAN

6 LETTERS

SCENES

8 Leaving One-Child Behind Chinese immigrants seek asylum in America from China's one-child policy.

BY MICHELLE CHEN

10 Display Cases Ralph Nader's museum of tort law will include relics from famous lawsuits—if it ever gets built.

BY LAURA LONGHINE

12 Uneasy Riders Myrtle Beach's separate and unequal biker rallies.

BY PAUL WACHTER

14 Not Bloody Guilty British lawyers are rushing to the defense of death-row inmates—in the American South.

BY DANA MULHAUSER

TERMS OF ART

16 Oh, Behave! Congress's recent efforts to punish federal judges flout the Constitution; it says so in the Good Behavior Clause.

BY TODD DAVID PETERSON

THE PRUDENT JURIST

19 Does a law firm have to keep your e-mail question confidential?

BY WILLIAM H. SIMON

ARGUMENTS

20 "Loser Pays" Doesn't When lawsuit losers are forced to pay the legal fees of winners, the cost of litigation for everyone goes up.

BY HERBERT M. KRITZER

22 $tats Claiming it owns the rights to players' names, baseball tells fantasy leagues to pay up. The leagues tell baseball to dream on.

BY ALAN SCHWARZ

24 Outranked and Underrated Rankings of law schools are inherently misleading. Ratings can reveal their strengths and weaknesses.

BY NORMAN BRADBURN