

Money! Power! Ambition Gone Awry!

26 MONEY! POWER! AMBITION GONE AWRY!

A frank history of the big-time American lawyer.

BY ROBERT W. GORDON

34 ONE STOP LAW SHOP

The land of solicitors and barristers teaches America how a freer market could deliver better legal services.

BY RICHARD A. EPSTEIN

38 VARTKES'S LIST

Of the million or more Armenians executed by Ottoman Turks 100 years ago, thousands had insurance from New York Life. A slip-and-fall lawyer uncovered the list of policyholders and, by forcing the company to pay their heirs, gave voice to the victims of genocide.

BY MICHAEL BOBELIAN

44 YOUNG GUNS

Peppered with fear, lust, and awe, the language kids use to describe guns reveals the spell that firearms cast over troubled teens.

BY BERNARD E. HARCOURT

48 CRUSADERS IN WINGTIPS

As American courts give more weight to imported precedents, a band of Christian lawyers is going abroad to shape foreign law—before it comes home to hurt their cause.

BY RACHEL MORRIS

53 CHILDREN OF THE CHURCH

The Catholic rule of celibacy has sown the clergy with hypocrisy—and reaped a fatherless flock.

17 Did the FBI act unethically in using an election as an undercover sting?

BY WILLIAM H. SIMON

ARGUMENTS

18 A Watchdog That Didn't Bark Jack Abramoff's guilty plea has made corrupt lobbying a very big story. Where were the media when coverage might have curbed the sleaze?

BY NORMAN ORNSTEIN

21 Shareholders Unplugged Power to the investor is the favored cure-all for corporate mismanagement, but it's bad for public companies and the people who work for them.

BY LYNN A. STOUT

24 Overprivileged The executive branch has turned a shield for guarding secrets into a sword for fighting lawsuits—by citing a misleading precedent.
