

Justice

THE INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION
OF JEWISH LAWYERS AND JURISTS

2 Spring
2006

In this issue

Human Rights

UN Human Rights Council
Supreme Court judgment

Anti-Semitism

The Hamas Charter
David Irving's Austrian trial
Efraim Halevy looks ahead

Business Law

Competitive taxation in Israel
Israel: trust and business center

Israeli Law

Integrating Jewish law within Israeli law
Rabbinical courts' international jurisdiction
Who can be extradited?

Contents

President's message	2
The Hamas Charter Intelligence and Terrorism Information Center	5
Some remarks concerning the trial of David Irving Hadassa Ben-Itto	7
The new UN Human Rights Council IAJL's statement to the United Nations Office at Geneva	9
Eilat Conference	10
France and the fight against anti-Semitism French ambassador to Israel Gérard Araud	12
Britain and the fight against anti-Semitism British ambassador to Israel Simon McDonald	13
A time for sober reflection Efraim Halevy	14
Competitive taxation in Israel Jacky Matza	16
Israel as a trust and business center Alon Kaplan and Lyat Eyal	20
Reflections on the integration of Jewish law within Israeli law Shimshon Ettinger	26
International jurisdiction of the rabbinical courts in Israel Moshe Drori	30
Israeli extradition law Irit Kohn	35
Supreme Court judgment: Local residents may not be solicited as part of Early Warning procedure Rahel Rimon	37
In memoriam: Baruch Geichman Itzhak Nener	42
Our Chapters
Argentina: Lawyers do dance tango Brenda Rapoport and Cesar Rosenstein	45
Bulgaria: Res ipsa loquitur Veluna Yavorska	46