

The International Journal
of

Human Rights

Volume 11 Numbers 1 & 2 March 2007

ISSN 1364-2987

Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group

The International Journal of Human Rights

VOLUME 11 NUMBERS 1 & 2 MARCH 2007

Special Double Issue: Equality in Asia-Pacific: Reality or a Contradiction in Terms?
Guest Editor: Phil C. W. Chan

Foreword Archbishop Desmond Tutu	1
Preface Frank Barnaby	3
Papers
Equality in Asia-Pacific: Reality or a Contradiction in Terms? – An Introduction Phil C. W. Chan	5
What's in a Name? Bisexuality, Transnational Sexuality Studies and Western Colonial Legacies Clare Hemmings	13
Same-Sex Marriage/Constitutionalism and their Centrality to Equality Rights in Hong Kong: A Comparative–Socio-Legal Appraisal Phil C. W. Chan	33
Changing Times, Changing Minds, Changing Laws – Sexual Orientation and New Zealand Law, 1960 to 2005 Paul Rishworth	85
The Same-Sex Marriage Debate in Australia Kristen Walker	109
Non-Governmental Organising for Gender Equality in China – Joining a Global Emancipatory Epistemic Community Cecilia Milwertz and Wei Bu	131
On China's Slow Boat to Women's Rights: Revisions to the Women's Protection Law, 2005 Michael Palmer	151
Inequality of Educational Opportunity in Korea by Gender, Socio-Economic Background, and Family Structure Hyunjoon Park	179
Official Languages and Bilingualism in the Courtroom: Hong Kong, Canada, the Republic of Ireland, and International Law Phil C. W. Chan	199
Constitutionalising Affirmative Action in the Fiji Islands Jill Cottrell and Yash Ghai	227
Notes on Contributors	259

