

EUROPEAN LAW REVIEW

Volume 34 No.1 February 2009

Editors: Panos Koutrakos and Niamh Nic Shuibhne

Consultant Editor: Anthony Arnall

Book Reviews Editor: Gareth Davies

Editorial:

Farewells, beginnings and New Year's resolutions

Obituary

Seamless web of judicial protection in the internal market?

Sacha Prechal and Sybe de Vries

From past imperfect to future perfect? A longitudinal study of the Third Pillar

Estella Baker and Christopher Harding

The ambiguity of social Europe in the open method of co-ordination

Mark Dawson

Multiple defendants in the European jurisdiction regulation

Zheng Sophia Tang

Analysis and Reflections

SWEET & MAXWELL

European Law Review

February 2009

Editorial	1
Farewells, beginnings and New Year's resolutions
Obituary
Professor L. Neville Brown (1923–2008)	3
Articles
Seamless web of judicial protection in the internal market? Sacha Prechal and Sybe de Vries	5
From past imperfect to future perfect? A longitudinal study of the Third Pillar Estella Baker and Christopher Harding	25
The ambiguity of social Europe in the open method of co-ordination Mark Dawson	55
Multiple defendants in the European jurisdiction regulation Zheng Sophia Tang	80
Analysis and Reflections
Terrorism and the ECJ: Empowerment and democracy in the EC legal order Takis Tridimas	103
A healthy approach to services of general economic interest? The BUPA judgment of the Court of First Instance Malcolm Ross	127
Damages claims against trade unions after Viking and Laval Katherine Apps	141
Book Reviews	155