

Justice

18 Winter 2011

THE INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF JEWISH LAWYERS AND JURISTS

Universal Declaration of Human Rights

born free and equal without distinction of any kind

right to life liberty and security

equal
before the law

In this issue

Universal jurisdiction
Commendable with caution
Repair the loophole

Goldstone
Green light to hate and terror
A suggested moral analysis
An opportunity missed

Iran
Combating a four-fold threat

Lawfare
Soft power demonization

Gilad Shalit
IAJLJ rallies against Red Cross failure

Contents

IAJLJ raps ICRC at worldwide Shalit rallies	24
President's Message	2
Resolutions passed at the London conference	2
London conference
Democratic and legal norms in the age of terror	3
London conference attracts young lawyers	4
NGOs, soft power and demonization in the 'lawfare' strategy Gerald Steinberg	5
Sliding towards universalism? Malcolm N. Shaw	10
The Goldstone Report and its UN fatherland Anne Bayefsky	15
A suggested moral analysis of the Goldstone Report and its aftermath Mordechai Kremnitzer	27
An opportunity missed? Robbie Sabel	30
A loophole that must be repaired Ron Prozor	36
Democracy coping with terror: the British perspective Peter Goldsmith	37
Combating the Iranian four-fold threat Inwin Cotler	42
Gaza conflict committee rebuffs IAJLJ	47
IAJLJ protests lack of due process in Tarabin trial	48
Greek court acquits anti-Nazi activists	48

NEVZLIN FAMILY FOUNDATION