

215/216

March–June 2014

International Social Science Journal

---

Understanding modern humanitarianism

WILEY Blackwell & UNESCO

Understanding modern humanitarianism

	Abstracts	3
Iain Wilkinson	Editorial introduction: Understanding modern humanitarianism	7
Michael Barnett	The humanitarian act: how humanitarian?	13
Peter Stamatov	Beyond and against capitalism: abolitionism and the moral dimension of humanitarian practice	25
John D. Brewer, Bernadette C. Hayes, Kutrin Dudgeon, Natascha Mueller-Hirth, Francis Teeney and Shirley-Lal Wijesinghe	Victims as moral beacons of humanitarianism in post-conflict societies	37
Clare Moon	Human rights, human remains: forensic humanitarianism and the human rights of the dead	49
Iain Wilkinson	The problem of understanding modern humanitarianism and its sociological value	65
	Open Forum
Barbara Sena	The sociological link between risk and responsibility: a critical review and a theoretical proposal	79
	Document
	Ethical principles for climate change: adaptation and mitigation report of COMEST	93
	Analytical Framework for Inclusive Policy Design: of what, why and how	109
	Past issues	133