

The International
Journal
of

Human Rights

Volume 21 Number 9 2017

SPECIAL ISSUE: Transformative
Reparations for Sexual Violence Post-conflict:
Prospects and Problems

GUEST EDITORS: Andrea Durbach,
Louise Chappell and
Sarah Williams

ISSN 1364-2987

 Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group

CONTENTS

Special issue introduction

- 1185 Foreword: special issue on 'transformative reparations for sexual violence post-conflict: prospects and problems'
Andrea Durbach, Louise Chappell and Sarah Williams

- 1193 Introduction: reflections on the concept and implementation of transformative reparations
Rashida Manjoo

Special issue articles

- 1204 Reparations for victims at the International Criminal Court: a new way forward?
Luke Moffett

- 1223 The gender injustice cascade: 'transformative' reparations for victims of sexual and gender-based crimes in the Lubanga case at the International Criminal Court
Louise Chappell

- 1243 The trial against Hissène Habré: networked justice and reparations at the Extraordinary African Chambers
Christoph Sperfeldt

- 1261 'To shape our own lives and our own world': exploring women's hearings as reparative mechanisms for victims of sexual violence post-conflict
Andrea Durbach and Lucy Geddes

- 1281 The unrealised potential for transformative reparations for sexual and gender-based violence in Sierra Leone
Sarah Williams and Jasmine Opdam

- 1302 Gender, violence and reparations in Northern Ireland: a story yet to be told Catherine O'Rourke and Aisling Swaine

- 1320 When there is no justice: gendered violence and harm in post-conflict Sri Lanka
Sara E. Davies and Jacqui True

Special issue notes from the field

- 1337 'Nothing about us, without us, is for us': victims and the international criminal justice system
Maxine Marcus, Louise Chappell and Andrea Durbach

Special issue book review

- 1347 Serge Brammertz and Michelle Jarvis (eds), Prosecuting conflict-related sexual violence at the ICTY
Niamh Hayes

General articles

- 1351 Mental disability and the right to personal liberty in Africa
Laura-Stella Enonchong

- 1378 Lost in operationalisation: developing legally relevant indicators, questions and benchmarks
Hadi Strømmen Lile

- 1401 With apologies to the future: environmental human rights and the politics of communal responsibility
Richard P. Hiskes
- 1417 The curious interplay between religion, equality and private male homosex in Singapore: time to cut the Gordian Knot?
Meera Rajah
- 1453 Sexual exploitation by UN peacekeepers: the 'survival sex' gap in international human rights law
Cassandra Mudgway
- 1477 Assessing the evolution of the Inter-American Court of Human Rights in the protection of migrants' rights: past, present and future
Belen Olmos Giupponi